REMARKS

This is UNEVALUATED Information 25X1

1. On 29 and 30 June 1953, an AT and an AAA unit returned from the Berlin area to the Kavallerie Kaserne in Pasewalk. Motor vehicles towed 3 x 76.2-mm AT guns and 4 x 37-mm AA guns. 25X1
 2. In the morning on 30 June, another unit of 120 men with yellow-bordered black and red-bordered black epaulets returned to Pasewalk on motor vehicles The unit left Pasewalk in a northerly direction on 1 July. 25X1
 3. Intensified traffic from and to the north by supply motor vehicles started on 1 July. During the reported period, jeeps and sedans of the headquarters continuously entered and left the Kavallerie Kaserne. 25X1
- Comment. five companies from Pasewalk were employed in Berlin on 17 June. The units observed returning from Berlin to Pasewalk on 29 and 30 June are believed to be three of the five companies. Supply traffic observed on 1 July between Pasewalk and troop units of the Armeegruppe Nord located north of Pasewalk also indicated that conditions were becoming normal. While during the first days of the riots no motor vehicle traffic was observed in Pasewalk, vehicular traffic there was normal after 22 June. 25X1
